Application number

Declaration of Unobtainable Certificates

This document should be submitted only if your situation applies to one of the scenarios listed on pages 42–43 of "Details of Required Documentation on Income and Household Circumstances," but you are unable to obtain the relevant documents from your employer.

	Draw a circle in the box that applies	•
Status	Documents to be obtained from employer
Currently working after changing jobs during or after January 2023	"Gensen chōshūhyō" (statement of earnings) for 2023 and a "taishoku shōmeisho" (certificate of resignation/retirement) from previous employer
Left job during or after January 2023	"taishoku shōmeisho" (certificate of resignation/retirement) from the company from which you resigned

If you are unable to obtain these documents from your employer, you will need to submit this declaration.

If you were an employee with a lifetime contract, please submit a "taishoku shōmeisho" (certificate of resignation/retirement) or a certificate issued by a company, organization or public institution such as an employment insurance beneficiary certificate or a release form (copies are acceptable for either). Former employees with lifetime contracts cannot submit this form

this form submitting student applicant	Full name of person submitting this form		Relationship to student applicant
--	--	--	-----------------------------------	--

I affirm that the following information is accurate and without discrepancy.

•
yen

Reason you cannot obtain documents

*The following is for the applying student to fill in

Student ID number				oer		Full name of scholarship applicant		