

Keio University Graduate School of Economics Application Period I
AY2020 Criteria for the Exemption of the First Screening

Those applicants who are enrolled in Faculty of Economics, who plans to apply to Graduate School of Economics in Application Period I and meet the criteria may apply to be exempted from submitting the English test score and from attending the written examination in the First Screening.

1. Criteria and Eligibility

Applicants who are enrolled in the fourth-year level in Faculty of Economics, Keio University whose accumulated GPA is above 2.8.

Those applicants who are admitted to Keio University before April 2017 should contact the Faculty of Economics Section in Office of Student Services, Keio University.

Note:

- a) Those who repeated a year-level due to the failure to meet the advancement criteria are not eligible for the exemption.
- b) Those fourth-year level students who are in the period of extension of the enrollment are not eligible for the exemption.

2. Application

- a) Apply for the eligibility check at Faculty of Economics Section in Office of Student Services, Keio University.
- b) If confirmed eligible for the exemption, the applicants must enclose a confirmation of eligibility form issued by the Office of Student Services in the application documents.