1. Programs

Programs are groups of professors and students, which are designed to produce leading experts in specific fields of study at the Graduate School. Each Program consists of a unique curriculum built upon the work of top specialists, and provides students with the opportunity to acquire a high level of knowledge through work on projects. Students pursue research consistent with the guidelines set by each Program.

4. Classes Cancellations due to Emergencies or Keio University Events

(1) Class cancellations due to emergencies

In the event of public transportation stoppages and other emergencies

In the event of a natural disaster such as a typhoon, heavy rain, heavy snow or earthquake, public transportation stoppages resulting from a major accident or other cause, and other emergencies in which it is necessary to cancel classes, information will be communicated through keio.jp portal or the Keio University Students website.

Other precautions

In the event that an emergency occurs after classes have begun for the day, the university will deal with the situation by canceling classes or sending students home early. In such cases, be sure to follow the instructions provided by the university via the P.A. system and the above Keio websites.

(2) Class cancellations due to Keio University events

Classes on Waseda-Keio Baseball Game Days

Each year, Waseda-Keio baseball games are held over a weekend in late May or early June in the Spring Semester, and late October or early November in the Fall Semester. In the event that the games extend to the following Monday and beyond, classes for courses offered at the Faculty of Policy Management and the Faculty of Environment and Information Studies, as well as classes for Courses Offered by Research Institutes and Centers held at SFC, may be canceled.

Please note that if a game is held on a Monday or later, information regarding classes will be posted on the Keio University Students website after 8:40 a.m. on that day.

https://www.students.keio.ac.jp/en/com/class/schedule/sokei.html

Game results can be seen on the Tokyo Big 6 Baseball League official site at http://www.big6.gr.jp/ (in Japanese only).

Mita Festival

During the Mita festival (including preparation and clean-up periods) at the end of November, classes offered at both undergraduate and graduate schools will be canceled. Training classes for the Faculty of Nursing and Medical Care will continue as usual.

Founder's Day

January 10 is a holiday (Yukichi Fukuzawa's birthday)

(3) Other

If any changes occur to how classes are handled, they will be posted on keio.jp portal or the Keio University Students website, so be sure to check carefully.
