

Medical Expenses

Medical Expenses (1)

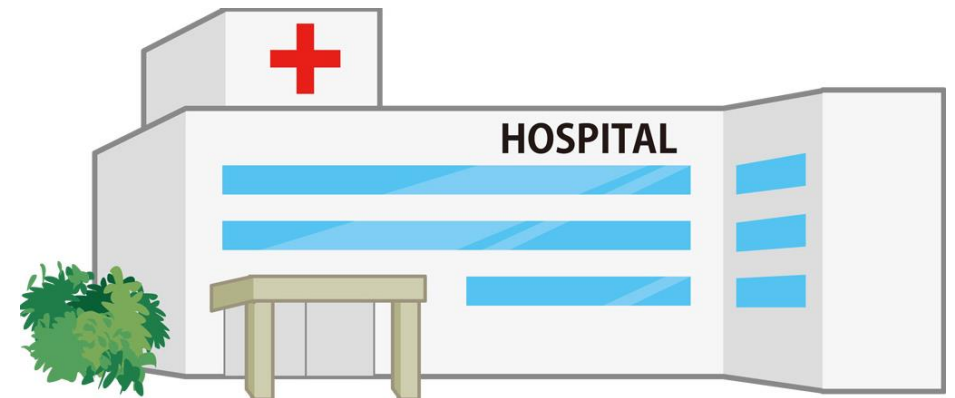

What are the medical care benefits at Keio University?

The university will cover fees exceeding 2,000 yen that are incurred by students using their health insurance card.

The conditions are as follows:

- ① The upper limit of reimbursement per instance of co-payment is 50,000 yen per month.
- ② Only fees exceeding 2,000 yen may be applied for.
- ③ All types of treatment within the same month will be considered a single instance of co-payment.
- ④ The reimbursement limit for one person is 150,000 yen per year (75,000 yen for half a year).

Medical Expenses (2)

Treatments that are covered

Covered

- Medical examinations and tests
- Treatment materials
- Medication
- Procedures and surgeries
- Hospitalization

Not covered

- Treatment at dental clinics (excluding oral and maxillofacial surgery)
- Medical expenses that are not covered by health insurance, or those paid out of pocket
- Immunization (for influenza etc.)
- Orthopedic, osteopathic, or acupuncture-moxibustion clinics.
- Expenses for food or amenity beds at the time of hospitalization.
- Checkups or full medical exams
- Fee for treatment of patient's choice
- Fees for documents or containers etc.

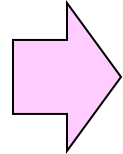

Medical Expenses (3)

How to apply

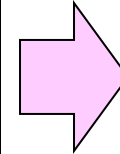

① At the medical institution

Receive stamped receipts of medical bills

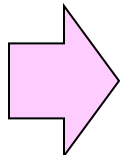

② Register your bank account (only once)

Download the form and submit along with a copy of your bank book via postal book.

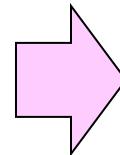

③ Online at <http://keio.jp/>

Fill out the application for medical care benefits and print it out.

④ Send the documents to the SFC Student Life Section

Submit the application and original receipts by the end of the month following the month in which the treatment was received.

⑤ Bank Transfer

The reimbursement will be transferred to your account.

Medical Expenses (4)

Please also check the Medical Care and Health in International Student Handbook!

<Medical Care and Health>

<https://giga.sfc.keio.ac.jp/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/5.-Medical-Care.pdf>