

COVID-19 update for 2020 spring semester

Please be informed that Keio's board members approved to start classes for 2020 spring semester on April 30 instead of April 7.

Class schedule: April 30 (Thu) to July 22 (Wed), 2020 (12 weeks)

-May 4, 5 and 6 (national holidays) are class day.

-Spring semester exam period will be included in the above-mentioned period.

Course registration period by online: April 16 to April 21

-Orientation will not be held and the handouts including info of course registration will be shared with you online by mid-April instead.

-Student ID card will be given to you in late April.

<Dormitory check-in days>

For students living in our dormitory, once the dormitory check-in dates are fixed, our housing section will email you.

<Visa>

Immigration Bureau of Japan announced that they would ease the term of validity of Certificate of Eligibility (COE) from 3 months to 6 months.

So you will use the COE to enter Japan if your visa is valid when you enter Japan. Please check 'the date of expiry' on your Japanese visa if you have obtained it already.
