Professor Yukihiro Ikeda Dean of the Faculty of Economics

Professor Chikako Kashiwazaki Head at Hiyoshi Campus for the Faculty of Economics

NOTICE

Academic misconduct during exams or in written assignments will not only lead to a failing grade for the course concerned but will result in the lowering of grades by one level for all other courses taken and passed in the same semester. Suspension or expulsion from the university may also be imposed under certain circumstances.

Note

Academic misconduct includes the following:

- 1. Taking the answer sheet home instead of turning it in at a semester-end examination;
- 2. Disobeying the instructions of examination proctors;
- 3. Providing false information when applying for makeup examinations;
- Plagiarism in written assignments.

The following may also be considered academic misconduct:

Taking an examination for a course without being registered

经済学部長 日吉主任 柏池

一〇二一年五月